MRS. COWLES WINS CUSTODY OF CHILDREN

Dr. Cowles to be Allowed to Have Daughters Visit Him a Week Christmas and Month in Summer.

Mrs. Florence Jacquith Cowles, formerly of this city, now of Brookline, Mass., has at last won her long fight against her divorced husband, Dr. Edward S. Cowles, also formerly of this city, now of New York, for the custody of their two young daughters, Mary Haywood and Virginia Harriett, aged 8 and 7 years respectively.

Judge John E. Allen of the Superior court gave his decision on the case at Exeter Wednesday. The case has been before the courts of both New Hampshire and Virginia for the past three years. Both father and mother had contested through the courts for the two little girls, and last year Dr. Cowles was charged with contempt of court after he had taken them to his parents' home in Virginia. The final hearing in the case was held in private before Judge Allen at Exeter several weeks ago, and he has had the matter under consideration since then pending his decision.

Judge Allen, in ruling that the children should live with their mother, stipulated that the father should be

Enemy Opens Heavy Bombardment in This Region -- Extreme Allied Right Wing Continues to Hold Well, While Fighting Continues Fiercely on Both Banks of the Somme—British Advance in Palestine and Take 200 Prisoners

COL. PERKINS ASSIGNED TO NEW YORK

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 28.—Brig. General Frederick Perkins, commanding the brigade of infantry at Camp Sherman, Ohio, has been relieved and will revert to his formal status as colonel and be assigned as chief of militia affairs for the Eastern Department at Governor's Island, N. Y.

COUNTER ATTACKS WILL WIN

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 28.—American staff officers, studying closely the war map and latest dispatches from the battlefronts are of the opinion that the development of momentum in the allied counter attack will begin to show themselves on the battlefield today or Friday.

(By Associated Press)
London, March 28.—Prisoners and machine guns have been captured by the British, the war office announced today. The fighting continues fiercely on both banks of the Somme.

This morning the enemy opened a heavy bombardment on the British defenses east of Arras. An attack is developing in this sector. Repeated attacks were made by the enemy along the valley of the Somme in the neighborhood of Beaumont-Hamel, Puisseux and Moyenneville. They were repulsed.

British Army Headquarters in France, March 28.—News received from the extreme right wing is that the allies are holding well. It refers to the southern sector where the French have fallen back.

Near Beaumont-Hamel the enemy attacked heavily and severe fighting followed. This morning it appears that the village was virtually a No Man's Land. With the contending line drawn close on either line, hard fighting occurred at several points along the battlefield during the night in consequence of the enemy attacks. According to latest reports the British have kept the situation well in hand.

London, March 28.—In the last 24 hours the Germans have made but one comparatively trifling gain as a result of numerous massed attacks along the whole front, says Reuters' correspondent at British field headquarters. For the British there may be claimed several distinct local successes, either in completely repelling the enemy blows, or in wrestling back the ground by counter attacks.

Paris, March 28.—Blocked on the left bank of the Oise, the Germans last night threw forward important forces in the region of Montdidier, the war office announced today. Here the fighting rapidly took an extraordinary ferocity.

French regiments fought hand to hand with the enemy and inflicted heavy losses. Finally the French fell back to the heights immediately west of Montdidier.

London, March 28.—A further advance by the British forces which have crossed the Jordan river in Palestine, is announced by the war office today. The statement says:

"Yesterday afternoon our forces east of the Jordan converged on Amman. Our mounted troops are within a mile of the town. Amman is about 25 miles east of the Jordan. We took 200 prisoners, drove down four enemy airplanes and heavily bombarded enemy troop transport trains on the Hedjaz railway."

British Headquarters in France, March 28.—The German artillery this morning put down an intense bombardment all along the front between Achille and the Souchet river, south of Lens, but up to the time of the forwarding of this dispatch at 10 a. m., no infantry action had been reported.

The Germans made several assaults near Rossignol Wood but on each occasion were driven back. Near Sully-Launette another sharp engagement occurred and here also the British maintained themselves and secured a number of prisoners.

The Germans are continuing to bring up artillery and rush the new troops from various parts of the line in preparation for the continuance of the drive.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ORGANIZATION IS PERFECTED

New Hampshire's Liberty Loan organization is so nearly complete that it appears safe to predict that it will be perfected by the end of the present week, a full week before the opening of the campaign for the state's share of $3,000,000.

Tuesday, there remained only 19 unreported committees, and every mail was bringing new ones.

Orford county was the first of the larger ones to report its full quota, Rockingham, that at one time appeared certain to be first, still lacking two small organizations.

Hillsborough county, for some time behind the others, chiefly because of the concentration of work elsewhere, is coming with a rush now, no less than six committees being reported in one mail yesterday.

The organization touches the extremes of life, in some communities, three or four persons are to do the work. Indeed, in the town of Freeport, one man, Stephen A. Frost, is to handle the campaign. He has done it before, and in the last drive amounting to more than $100,000, when the contribution for his town was only $17,000. On the other hand, Manchester has put the main drive into the hands of its Board of Commerce, which will have more than 500 workers in the field, besides a large women's committee. Nashua has a committee about the size of Portsmouth's. Keen has some 120 workers.

One of the most interesting features of the town organization is the minute way in which the committees are to be canvassed. In some small places there are three or four distinct sub-committees, assigned to tiny villages.

At present, the work of organization being so nearly done, attention is turning to the rallies that are being planned by the state. Many of these are to be on April 6, the opening day of the drive. Chester and Freeport are among the Rockingham county towns that have arranged these meetings. And they are to be held in an part of the state.

In short, all the signs point to complete organization, and a thorough job in the way of preparing public sentiment long before the opening of the campaign.

This state, by the way, was the first in New England to complete its list of local chairmen, that being done on Monday.

With H. Hays, chairman of the national committee, being unable to attend the convention will be represented by John T. Kling, the Connecticut member of the committee. Maine's only delegation in Congress, as well as Gov. Milliken was expected to reach here today. One of the features planned for this evening is a parade by the Carl E. Milliken Club.

ROCHESTER

Rochester, March 28.—There was a lengthy session of police court Tuesday, occupying the greater part of the forenoon and afternoon. On complaint of H. E. Rowan of Laconia, agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Newell B. Horne, a well-known truckman, was arraigned before Judge Samuel D. Felker on the charge of abusing two horses, one of which for lack of feed, it is alleged, it was necessary to dispatch. Fourteen witnesses were examined, the evidence showing much severity on the part of Horne to his horses. He was represented by Attorney Justin A. Emery and Lily Smart, Esq., appeared for the state. In regard to the horse that died, Judge Felker ordered the respondent to pay a fine of $25 and costs, with a suspended jail sentence of thirty days, and the case regarding the horse Horne now owns was placed on file. Horne appealed, and was ordered to furnish $200 bonds in each case for his appearance at the September term of superior court. He afterwards retracted his plea and settled.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

When constipated or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

Which poisons, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or get naturally, or is feverish, stomachic, sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile, gently moves out of his little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

STRIKE DECLARED IN TRIEST

(By Associated Press)

New York March 28.—A strike movement in Triest was reported in a Wolff Bureau dispatch from that city, dated February 24, and confirmed in German papers received here. The dispatch says that harbor workers and the employees of the larger factories went on a strike. Later they were joined by other classes of labor including the composers. A committee of the strikers submitted to the government the demands of the strikers, especially those relating to peace and the distribution of food. Following the reply of the governor, who refused especially to the peace statement of Count Czernin, the Austrian foreign minister, a meeting of the representatives of the strikers decided that work should be resumed.

ANTWERP RAVAGED BY GERMANS

(By Associated Press)

Liverpool England, March 28.—Information which has reached the Liverpool Post shows how the Germans have damaged the port of Antwerp. They have deliberately allowed the harbor mouth to fill with silt to such an extent that it will require much dredging before the port is navigable again. The warehouses on the harbor front are in a terrible condition owing to the fact that all the masts have been stripped off the roofs. The railways on the wharves have been torn up and in many cases the lock gates have been allowed to rot. Even under the most drastic application of the doctrine of reparation it must be many a long day before Antwerp is restored to its former efficiency and prosperity and becomes a great European port.

SUBMARINE TOLL OF BRITISH MERCHANTMEN

Begin Intensive Campaign With the Big Offensive on Hand.

(By Associated Press)
London, March 27.—As was expected the Germans with the start of the big offensive have started an intensive submarine campaign and the British Admiralty today announced that during the past week the loss from submarines and mines has been 28 merchant ships, 16 of these were over 1600 tons, twelve under. One fishing schooner was also sunk.

The present week exceeds that of the former week when 17 were sunk. The Italians have reported the loss of three steamers and a number of sailing vessels by submarines.

NOW IS WHEN THE RED CROSS WORK COUNTS

The Portsmouth Red Cross work room at the Elks Home was a busy place yesterday with a good sized gathering of the women engaged in making surgical dressings.

There is naturally a great interest in this work, after the great battle that is being fought on the west front and from the fact that American troops are now engaged. This is the kind of work that counts most for with the great many wounded, the increased need of surgical dressings is apparent.

The working force on surgical dressings has fallen off some, but there is a great demand and everybody who can possibly spare the time should give it for this great work.

Wednesday a shipment of 2000 surgical dressings of the many kinds were forwarded to the New England headquarters in Boston and also a large box of bandages.

There has been some changes made in the styles of surgical dressings and a conference was held in Boston on Wednesday at the headquarters to explain the changes. Three of the workers from this city, Mrs. H. C. Taylor, assistant chairman of surgical dressings, Mrs. E. L. Chaney a director of the branch and Mrs. H. W. Peyser, represented the local work room. This work room have the highest rating for surgical dressings and they intend to maintain this high standing.

The old clothes donation for the Belgian and French people, who are under German sway, was packed at the collection station at the old Court house and is now ready for shipment. This goes through direct to the Belgian Relief Commission in New York to be shipped to Belgium via Rotterdam, a safe passage being guaranteed by Germany. The packing was done by several of the clerks of the local clothing houses who, are used to the work and did an excellent job.

The Red Cross was never in the world's history needed as much as at the present time. There is work that everybody can do, especially the ladies and a cordial welcome is extended to all workers at the Work Room. Today is sewing day, that is making hospital garments. There is room for more workers.

The current number of the Red Cross Magazine is devoted to the Junior Red Cross and it is a very fine number, handsomely illustrated and replete with interesting matter.

The Chapter will today sit out all the men from this district who leave for Camp Devens on Friday, with sweaters and other knitted goods.

as Fast as Possible to France.

(By Associated Press)
New York, March 27.—A message from David Lloyd George the British Premier, calling upon the United States to send all available reserves at the earliest possible movement, was read by Lord Reading the English Commissioner in this country, at a banquet in his honor this evening.

RESERVES TO STRIKE IN COUNTER ATTACK

Paris, March 27.—Leon Abrami, under secretary for pensions, summed up the situation thus:

"After hard combats with the British troops, the Germans are about to meet the shock of a powerful French army, perfectly fresh, animated by a spirit of sacrifice, and protected by a curtain of artillery fire such as it is difficult to conceive of. This army has been taken to the scene of action by railroads and every other route. Most of these troops have not yet fired a bullet or a shell. Hitherto a few independent divisions have checked the enemy's progress. Furthermore, formidable British reserves of manoeuvre are arriving on the battlefield, so that the enemy's gains of ground can be but ephemeral."

M. Abrami's allusions to the British troops, and probably to the French, which are being thrown in doubtless refer to forces from the Allied army of manoeuvre formed by the Supreme War Council at Versailles. These troops were held back until the Germans had definitely committed themselves to the offensive now under way.

U. S. CASUALTY LIST STILL KEPT SMALL

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 27.—The casualty list issued today by the War Department contains the names of 30 American soldiers. They were divided up as follows with no officers mentioned. Killed in action 3, died of accident 1, died of disease 4, seriously wounded 2, slightly wounded 14.

LOANS N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. MANY MILLIONS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 27.—As the first big expenditure out of the $500,000,000 railroad fund, Secretary McAdoo today loaned the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad $13,861 for one year at the rate of six per cent, to meet notes coming due April 1.

MAY NOT SELL ALIEN PROPERTY

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 27.—Power of sale of alien property held by the Custodian of such property, will not be exercised only when he deems it better to divorce the business from the German stockholders or owners.

ALWAYS ON THE JOB

A Marine Corps recruiting party in charge of a sergeant, was here on Wednesday evening on their way to Portland where they will work during the visit of Col. Theodore Roosevelt. They are in the Marine Corps automobile and they figure that Col. Roosevelt's address will mean some recruits for the Marine Corps, and they propose to be on hand to pick them up.

HAIG AGAIN FORCED TO WITHDRAW LINE

London, March 27.—The official report issued today says: "As a result of the enemy's attacks yesterday afternoon and evening astride the Somme, our troops on both banks were forced back a short distance in the neighborhood of Bray. A heavy attack made early in the night against our new line south of the Somme was repulsed after severe fighting. At one point in the neighborhood of the river the enemy forced his way into our positions, but was thrown back by our counter-attacks."

Further local fighting has taken place also north and northeast of Albert, but the situation on this part of the battlefield remains unchanged.

K. OF C. FUND $4,069,542

New York, March 27.—A contribution of $250,000 yesterday by the Carnegie Foundation added the finishing touch to the campaign conducted by the Knights of Columbus in the Archdiocese of New York to raise $2,500,000 for their welfare work among American troops here and abroad, and lifted the total to $4,069,542, with reports not all in.

The gift of the Carnegie Foundation was the largest single contribution recorded during the drive. It was made chiefly through the efforts of E. L. Root who called a meeting of the trustees to consider it.

Or the grand total reported, which exceeds by more than $1,500,000 the goal set, the parishes contributed $2,500,000 and the field districts $1,569,542.

No "Sale of Indulgences."

The Red Cross is doing a great and beneficent work in this war and the people are supporting it with commendable liberality, but a step was taken in New York the other day the propriety of which is clearly open to question. Two baking concerns convicted of violating the food regulations were given the choice of contributing to the Red Cross of having their licenses suspended. They chose to contribute, one laying down a check for $1,000 and the other "coming across" in a lesser amount. The account was thus squared and both were permitted to go on with their business.

This was very nice for the Red Cross, and it was also a punishment for the offending bakers. But if this sort of thing were to be made the rule where would be protection of the government and the public come in? The food regulations were designed to conserve certain food articles because of necessities growing out of the war, and honorable bakers, dealers and citizens have accepted the situation in good faith. Some of the resultant conditions are not altogether agreeable, but in a spirit of patriotism and readiness to sacrifice the people have bowed to the rulings of the Food Administration and are doing their best to live up to them.

The penalty for violation of the rules by manufacturers and dealers is the suspension or revocation of their licenses or the cutting off of their supplies. This penalty was prescribed in order to make possible a rigid enforcement of the rules, it being well known that fines have comparatively little deterrent effect upon offenders against the laws. As a rule the man who pays a fine feels that he has fully squared himself with the law, as he has in a strictly legal sense, and that he is at liberty to do as he pleases thereafter. Provided he stands prepared to settle in case of further trouble. This has been proved over and over again in the cases of offending automobilists and other classes of offenders.

To most people it will seem hardly proper to attempt to enforce the food regulations by such methods. Should manufacturers and dealers in foods come to understand that they could ignore the regulations with impunity, beyond the payment of sums of money into the treasury of the Red Cross or some other treasury in case of detection, the regulations would be practically sidetracked and the conservation of foods in the way that has been attempted would come to naught.

As has been stated, the food regulations are not altogether agreeable, but they have been established for a purpose, and while they stand they should be rigidly enforced. And if this is to be done the prescribed penalties must be imposed in cases of violation and offenders must not be allowed to walk off by merely "chipping in" to the Red Cross, noble and deserving as is that great organization. There should be nothing resembling the "sale of indulgences" in the enforcement of the food regulations, and there must not be if the expected benefits of those regulations are to be realized.

An old saying has it that "Satan finds some mischief still for idle hands to do," and President Wilson has decided that he can find something for conscientious objectors to do to help win the war. This is a step in the right direction and leaves no ground for complaint on the part of those who have genuine scruples against fighting, or those who assume them.

The War Department is weeding out commanding officers who are found physically unfit for duty at the front, as is proper. But wouldn't it have been better to do this a little earlier? A farmer who would feed a horse all winter only to find him unfit for service in the spring would be called a poor manager.

Of course it was no reflection upon those Vermont farmers who were excused from jury duty the other day by the Washington County Court and told to go home and attend to their work. The court undoubtedly regarded this as one step toward "winning the war."

If Portsmouth is made the distributing center for the coal used in New Hampshire it ought to be in a position to take care of itself, although, of course, it would not be expected to toast its shins while others were freezing.

According to advices from the other side the Germans are also preparing to grab alien property found within their borders. The war game in all of its ugly features appears to be one that two can play at.

Live young chickens can now be sent through the mails by parcel post, but it is to be doubted that this will prove very profitable to the government or anybody else.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

We Too Must Stand Fast
(From the New York Herald)
The German advance is a direct challenge to America. This country must meet that challenge by putting forward every ounce of its strength.

What "Kultur" Means
(From the New York Herald)
In addition to the thousand and one other good reasons why this Knights of Columbus drive should be a success, there is the reported execution by the Germans at Brussels of two priests of the Church and the sentence of eight others to life imprisonment.

A Prophet Without Honor
(From the New York World)
A man died recently who, as New York City's able comptroller, sold its bonds bearing interest at 2 1/2 per cent, the lowest municipal rate on record, and who said that if the city had retained control of all its public franchises and utilities, wisely used, it need not raise a dollar by direct taxation. Theodore W. Myers lived to see changes!

Welcome Butter Back Again
(From the New York Commercial)
Butter has declined sharply in price and the lower edible grades are creeping up. High-grade oleomargarine in the wholesale markets. Butter cannot go much lower without carrying down its substitutes, lard and other edible fats and oils, all of which are in a sense substitutes for butter. For consumers, cheap butter is very desirable. Scientists have found that butter contains more and better vitamins than any other food and that nothing else so well promotes the health and growth of children. A few years ago doctors were blissfully ignorant of the existence of vitamins, and some of them insisted that too much butter hurt children. Now they agree pretty well that Hans Anderson was scientifically right when he wrote the story of the little child who prayed, "Give us this day our daily bread—with plenty of butter on it."

Sugar Hogs
(From the Chicago Evening Post)
Watch the sugar hog in the dairy lurch or at the restaurant where an ample supply is within his reach. One of our readers reports seeing a specimen of this particular kind of selfish human lead six spoonfuls of sweetening into his cup of coffee, with a sign "Help Us Save Sugar" staring him in the face.

If the individual customer will not cooperate in saving sugar, then it is up to the dairy lunchrooms to measure out his supply for him. This may require a little trouble, but it ought to be done. Two spoonfuls is a good limit for any man in his coffee under existing conditions, and the man who will not deny himself for the people of Belgium and France and the boys in the trenches must be put on rations.

A Foretaste of Coming Joys
(From the New York Times)
Through Massachusetts is not yet formally blessed with that magical and miraculous state-saver, the Initiative and Referendum, beloved of the Constitutional Convention, she awaits it in hope. Meanwhile, something of its wonder-working power is visible to every eye. Petitions for and against prohibition are circulated and signed multitudinously. Petitions by the thousands, many by the mile, rain upon the Great and General Court.

The excellence of the petition-signing habit, that sweet root of which the I and R is the consummate flower is evident memorably. Many impartial caretakers, or polite citizens have signed both petitions. Wet and Dry. Several prominent men taken to task for subscribing themselves among the friends of rum, defend themselves by saying that they thought they were signing a referendum petition.

Small foretastes of millennial joys under the I and R, when garnering and signing petitions will be the chief pleasure and duty of the citizen.

Old Fort's New Service
(From the Baltimore American)
The historic old fort which projects into the harbor waters of Baltimore has started upon a new and different national service. As a hospital camp Fort Mifflin has begun a record that will go down in the history of the great war. The equipments for hospital service are already considerable, and the government is enlarging the housing arrangements greatly. The immigrant station buildings will be used for invalid soldiers until the end of the war.

clean tidal waters on three sides. There is a sea wall that is more than a mile in extent and a view that overlooks the activities of the harbor, with a long view down the river to the bay. Accommodation can perhaps be made for 6000 or 8000 patients.

Two Appeals For Divine Aid
(From the New York Sun)
From the battlefield of Pleardy, red in the blood of the slaughtered thousands, the German emperor telegraphs to the empress:

I am pleased to be able to tell you that, by the grace of God, the battle of Monchy, Cambrai, St. Quentin and La Fere has been won. The Lord has gloriously aided. May He further help. That same recognition of divine aid came when Louvain was burned and Belgium desolated; when Serbia was swept by fire and sword, and the Serb women and children, fleeing from Teutonic wrath, perished by hundreds in the snows of the Albanian mountains; when Roumania fell a victim to German intrigues with corrupted Russian officials, and Armenia was deported to starvation and death.

The patience and forbearance of "a humble Methodist minister in Topeka"—our informant, the Kansas City Journal, neglects to give his name—becoming exhausted, he prayed at his morning service:

"O Lord!
Thou knowest
That if this German Kaiser,
His war lords and officers
Shall all be slain tomorrow
We shall rejoice
And Thou wilt not be sorry."
No one has accused that Kansas preacher of a lack of Christian spirit.

DISCOVER SUBSTITUTE FOR COTTON

(By Associated Press)
Tokio, March 28.—The discovery of a practical substitute for cotton was announced today at the annual meeting of the Federation of Marine Industries. The announcement was made by K. GAS CO. WANT TO INCREASE RATES

Asks Public Service Commission to Make Schedule; Hearing Here April 2.

The New Hampshire Public Service Commission has received a letter from the Portsmouth Gas Company withdrawing the proposed new schedule of rates, of which public notice was given the early part of this month and requesting the commission to fix a rate schedule which will give the company a fair return. The letter reads as follows:

"We wish to withdraw the schedule of rates filed with you on February 25, and make a request that you fix a rate including a service charge for this company that will give a fair return on the actual money invested in the business and give us revenue enough to take care of the needs of the property to keep it in good shape and able to meet the demands of the public upon it."

"We are willing to leave this matter entirely in your hands as you know what amount of revenue is required to keep the property up in shape, and as you have the reports of this company for the past five or six years in your possession you can readily ascertain what our previous earnings have been and the manner in which the revenue of this company has been applied to it."

"Any information you would like in regard to the financial affairs of the company will be freely furnished."

"We would like to have you give this your earliest possible attention, as we are operating at a loss at present."

The commission will come to Portsmouth on Tuesday next, April 2, for a hearing upon this matter. The hearing will be held at 10 o'clock in the forenoon in the probate court room of the county court house.

EASTER LILIES SCARCE

The local florists are busy with preparations for Easter and a glimpse in their conservatories or shops shows a handsome display of spring bloom. The Easter lilies are not plentiful this season, owing to the coal conservation of the winter, which caused the closing of many greenhouses, consequently the price is higher than usual. Pinks, Easter lilies, carnations, tulips and peonies will make up the adornings in the churches for this great festival. Local florists are also receiving many orders for potted plants including Easter lilies, hyacinths and tulips in full bloom; the greater number of these orders being for the aged, the sick and "shut-ins" who will not be able to attend church on Easter day.

SENDS THANKS FOR GIFTS

Sergt. High With the U. S. Marines in France, Writes to Kittery Point Woman.

The following letter may be of some interest to the friends in this vicinity of Sergt. Arthur High, U. S. Marine Corps, who is at present with the 7th Co., 5th Regiment U. S. Marines in France. Sergt. High was stationed on the U. S. R. Houthery at the local navy yard a few years ago. The letter which follows was written to Mrs. J. P. Boyer of Kittery Point, thanking her for some knitted articles she had sent him. The letter is as follows:

Somewhere in France, Feb. 23, 1918.

Mrs. Boyer,
Dear Madam:
As I have the time this evening, am writing you a few lines to let you know that I received a box from the Kittery Red Cross, and found a pair of socks in it with your name attached; also got a sweater, pair of wristlets and a headpiece. Words cannot express my feelings when I opened the box and found such a fine present. I will surely appreciate wearing the articles. I have the sweater on at present and it fits fine. I really hate to put the socks on as they wear out so fast over here. The sweater and wristlets come in handy over here and the weather is pretty cold at times and a few needles something like the above to keep him warm. It has puzzled me to know how I happened to receive the present. But after thinking it over, I think I know your husband well, that is if he is the Mr. Boyer that belongs to the Moose Lodge. If so, tell him I send my best regards, and also to Mrs. Boyer for the kind present.

I hope when the big day comes for me to depart from this far off country for the U. S. A., that I will have the opportunity to meet the kind friends I am writing to. Hope I am not taking up too much of your time, but the thought is just coming to me, so I have to write.

I am now going to write my little friend in Kittery, Me., and tell her about the fine present that I received. Well, am sorry that I cannot say some more, but must close now. Hope you will continue to remember the boys in this far away land. Will close now, thanking you a thousand times for the present. Goodbye.

OBITUARY

Daniel W. Dalton
Daniel W. Dalton of North Hampton passed away Wednesday at his home on Atlantic avenue in that town, aged 63 years. Funeral services will be held from his late home Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Friends invited. Kindly omit flowers.

Phoebe M. Wadsworth
A shadow of sorrow must cast over a large circle of friends and acquaintances of Phoebe M. Wadsworth at the news of her death Thursday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Delano, 275 Vaughan street, Portland, Me.

Mrs. Wadsworth, although confined to the house for the last six months was able to be about until a few moments before her death which was attributed to heart failure.

Born in West Gardiner, May 12, 1837, daughter of Noah and Eliza Farr prominent members of the Society of Friends, she thus became a birthright member of the society as is the custom of the Friends. At an early age she evinced a deep interest in charitable and religious work and was ordained a minister in the society, visiting in that capacity many of the Friends meetings in New England and the Middle West. She was pastor of the Friends church in Augusta for 17 years until the death of her husband Franklin Wadsworth, which occurred October 21st, 1908. Since that time she has made her home with her daughters, Mrs. John Croton of Portsmouth, N. H., and Mrs. E. B. Delano of Portland.

Always of a sympathetic and kindly disposition her visits have brought cheer to many a sorrowing home as her numerous friends can testify. Her death brings to a close a life filled with good deeds and religious devotion.

She is survived by one brother, Lindley M. Farr of North Weare, N. H.; two daughters, Mrs. John Croton of Portsmouth, N. H., Mrs. E. B. Delano

ODESSA WAS BOMBARDED BY CRUISERS

(By Associated Press)
Petrograd, March 28.—Despatches published here confirm the report that Odessa has been recaptured by the Bolsheviks.

Odessa was first bombarded by the cruisers which came from Sebastopol. There was desperate fighting for three days in the vicinity of Sevastopol between the Bolsheviks and Austro-German detachments.

Several attempts have been made to learn the correct number of Portsmouth men now serving in the service of the army and navy who enlisted since the war, but up to now but little headway has been made in the matter. In order to get as near as possible to the number in the military service, this paper will establish a list of these men on the roll of honor, and respectfully requests the local organizations, Elks, Eagles, Warwek clubs, K. of C., A. O. U. E., A. O. U. W., Foresters of America, Modern Woodmen of America, Spanish War Veterans, Loyal Order of Moose, Red Men, K. of P., Patrons of Husbandry, Loyal Arcanum, P. A. C., Odd Fellows, Maçons, and others to provide a list of their men for publication, in addition to this, the relatives of young men in the service are requested to help out in sending the names of the same to this office. Corrections and additions will be made from time to time. The object is to find out the number fighting for the world's democracy and establish a roll of honor.

And in a corner of each case appears this: "From William McGinnis, Portsmouth, N. H., to Collector of Customs, Bangor, Me."

At the Custom House an anxious inquirer was informed that in order to possess himself of one of the Glenlivet boxes all he had to do was to forward $23 to Mr. McGinnis of Portsmouth, N. H., who thereupon would send an order to the collector of customs for the delivery of the goods, this contingent upon payment by the customer of $5.57 import duties, $5.04 internal revenue tax and 30 cents a month storage, or $34.91 in all. That is a pretty stiff price, but when it is considered that a bottle of prohibition whiskey that would cost a hole in a boiler costs $3 in $4 here, Mr. McGinnis' figure isn't so high for the Glenlivet.

It appears that some time ago Governor Milliken heard of the enterprise of Mr. McGinnis of Portsmouth and indignantly made his way to Washington and there complained about it.

Treasury department officials listened kindly and said that they would see what could be done about it, to save Maine from being corrupted by hot stuff with thistles in it.

They sent a special investigator down here and after a while the investigator made a report to the effect that, while it might be too bad and very bad, the whole performance was well within the law.

And there you are! Scotch sold right here under the Governor's nose, and in a fine granite building under government auspices!

SELLING WHISKEY IN BANGOR

Portsmouth Man Has Discovered a Way to Help the Drought in Maine.

Bangor, Me., March 28.—Hawkeyed sheriff, vigilant Civic Leaguers and other agents of reform, cheered on and unletted, at least in an oratorical way, by a white ribbon Governor, have made it uncomfortable, if not actually risky, for native merchants to dispense alcoholic inspiration in Maine, but here is one William McGinnis of 28 Bow street, Portsmouth, N. H., selling real Scotch right under the noses of all the minions of the law—city, county, State and national—in defiance even of the Hon. Carl E. Milliken himself, who is Governor and has sworn that such horrid things shall not be.

Yes, as a matter of fact, any citizen of Bangor can go right up to the customhouse and get a case, or may be several cases, of imported Scotch whiskey and tote it home in broad daylight, with all the rudders gazing hungrily or thirstily on, and get away with it. There are certain preliminaries, of course, but they're purely financial, not legal, and anyone who has the price can get the Scotch.

The glad news hasn't become widely disseminated as yet, but everybody will know it when this gets into print, and then it is feared, the rush will be something tellible to contemplate. First come, first served, and no favorites played. Scotch will be handed out while the stock lasts, and those who are out of highball material should get in early to avoid the rush and possible disappointment. The particulars:

Some time last year, before the importation of liquors was shut off, Mr. McGinnis of Portsmouth had a shipment, more or less, of whiskey brought over and landed at the port of New York, thence distributing it in lots of 10 to 100 cases along the seaboard, and even far inland, to towns that might be dry enough to put up a good price for something choice, to remain in bond in the customhouse of these localities until called for. Bangor was favored with 25 cases, all marked this way:

William Williams & Sons, Ltd.,
Glenlivet Distillery,
Glenlivet,
V. V. V.

Blended Whiskey.
E. Lamontagne & Sons, New York.
From Scotland, 12 Bottles, Each 1 Pint & 5 Ounces.

And in a corner of each case appears this: "From William McGinnis, Portsmouth, N. H., to Collector of Customs, Bangor, Me."

At the Custom House an anxious inquirer was informed that in order to possess himself of one of the Glenlivet boxes all he had to do was to forward $23 to Mr. McGinnis of Portsmouth, N. LOCAL NURSES PASS STATE EXAMINATION

Have the Honor of Being the First From the Training School.

As a result of the recent examination held at the state house, Concord, for graduate nurses throughout the state, three applicants from this city were successful in passing. The local women who made the title of registered nurse, were Miss Eva C. Cameron, Miss Alice O'Brien and Miss Mildred C. Meyer, who were notified on Wednesday by the examining board of their standing.

The success of these young women is very gratifying to the management of the Portsmouth hospital from the fact that they were the first product of the institution training school to appear for a state examination and their success is an honor to themselves as well as to those who supervise the work of the hospital.

The examination took place on March 7 and 8 and 53 or more applicants presented themselves at the state house. The local women distinguished themselves with excellent marks in their work.

NEW TIME SCHEDULE DIRECTIONS

Many people yet seem to be confused by the daylight saving law and how it is to be observed. If such persons would set their clocks and watches ahead an hour when they go to bed Saturday night there would be no chance for confusion in the morning. After the daylight saving law has been in existence a short time, it is believed that people generally will forget that their clocks and watches are an hour ahead of the time fixed by nature's law and it will make no difference in existing conditions. Trains will run as usual and every feature of daily life which is planned by the time, will observe the daylight saving law until the last Saturday in October.

HOLY THURSDAY

Today is Holy Thursday, the anniversary of the institution of the Lord's Supper and observed by services in the Catholic and Episcopal churches. Tomorrow, Good Friday, is observed as one of the most impressive days on the church calendar, a day when Christians recall the sufferings of the Savior and the churches commemorate his death with special services. In the Catholic and Episcopal churches the altar is stripped of all ornaments and draped in black and everything about the church gives evidence of sorrow at the death of Christ.

EX-PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT HERE TODAY

Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt was in Portsmouth for a few minutes today en route to Portland. He occupied the drawing room in a Pullman on the 10:56 train. When The Herald editor boarded the train he found the great Republican leader enthusiastic. One would never know from his appearance that he had been ill and he was looking forward with much pleasure to the meeting in Portland. There were a number of warm personal admirers at the station to greet him.

On the trip from New York yesterday Colonel Roosevelt was shown a copy of a New York newspaper, containing a story about his son, Capt. Archie Roosevelt who is confined in one of the military hospitals in France as a result of wounds sustained on the battlefield. A representative of the paper called on Captain Archie Roosevelt and wanted a statement from him. Captain Roosevelt is credited with saying that he did not want any special attention and would much prefer to be treated the same as any other American soldier. He did not want any undue publicity. The colonel after reading the story said, "That's just like the boy."

While on the train yesterday an elderly woman stepped up to the former president and in a quiet, but firm manner asked: "What is the news from the front, Mr. President? Col. Roosevelt replied, 'Very good news, thank you.'"

When the former president left the Roosevelt hospital in New York, where he was operated on about a month ago, the doctors there predicted that he would suffer the loss of hearing of one ear. In an interview last night the colonel seemed to have the use of both ears and at an time asked that a statement be repeated.

Col. Roosevelt will leave Portland tomorrow morning, arriving in Boston in the afternoon. He will remain in the Hub several days as the guest of Dr. Hagelew, who is one of his closest personal friends. It is expected that both the colonel and his wife will pass a good deal of their time while in Boston in the company of the newest grandson, Archie Roosevelt, and Mrs. Archie Roosevelt, who is staying at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lockwood at 11 Bay State road.

FOOD DEMONSTRATION

A food conservation display in the window of a Market street store is attracting no little attention today. The display shows wheat, substitutes and some foods to eat in release, necessary food stuffs for the allies. A number of large placards tell of the necessity of people treating the matter of food conservation with much seriousness. One especially worth thinking about is to "Remember our soldiers at every meal."

THE HERALD HEARS

That a hearing will be held in this city on next Tuesday at 10 a. m. on the proposed increase in gas rates. That the public service commission will be here on that day, and will set in the probate court room.

That the Boston and Maine engineering department are working on the plans for the reconstruction of the Dover Point bridge.

That next Monday is the last day for filing income tax returns. To forget it will be no April fool joke.

That local bootleggers have practically quit the game.

That the past winter wrecked a lot of the flags about town.

That Dover Point and Newington will get a new, modern bridge across the Piscataqua in time, but one to Kittery is a question.

WILL REDUCE PRICE OF FISH.

The recent investigation in Boston of the "Fish Trust" has a tendency to reduce the price of fresh fish, not only at wholesale but at retail in the local market. Fresh fish is now in reach of the ordinary person, having felt the effects of the Boston market, causing haddock, which has been sold at 15c a lb., during the winter season, now to sell around 10c. The prices of other small fish have dropped in proportion, but may not stand as low if the re-velments in Boston at the fish pier are short, but many fishing vessels are out now during this good spell of weather. Fresh halibut is one of the sea products which should drop in price. The Boston and Gloucester fishermen are now sitting out for southern waters for haddock fishing. Several vessels leaving last week. Salted and pickled fish are still high. At the present time most is much higher than fresh fish at any price.

WILL PAY NO BILLS.

After this date I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by my wife, Eva Robin.

POSTAL MEN GET MORE PAY

Washington, March 27.—The House last night passed a bill granting permanent increases of from 10 to 20 per cent in the salaries of virtually all postal employees, providing for "postal savings stamps," appropriating $300,000 for experiments in motor truck service, principally to transport food to the larger cities, and setting 24 cents an ounce as the maximum price to be charged for delivery of mail by airplane.

Clerks in first and second class post office divided into six grades with increased salaries ranging from $1000 to $1500.

Railroad postal clerks have divided into 10 grades at increased salaries ranging from $1100 to $2000.

In first and second class offices all employees not otherwise provided for, train assistant postmasters to clerks, are given a 15 per cent increase if receiving from $1200 to $1800.

U. S. TANKER SINKS A U-BOAT

Washington, March 27.—After an hour's battle with a German U-boat on the morning of March 1, the American oil tanker Panabara sent the enemy vessel beneath the waves "damaged and in distress," the navy department reported today.

It was the tanker's second struggle with a submarine in six days.

In the first encounter a torpedo missed the boat by 26 yards. Four shots at the submarine sent her diving away.

In the second battle a submarine, about 8000 yards ahead opened fire, using tandem fire, then salvoes, then firing shrapnel. Some of her 60 shells "reached their mark, coming close to the American gun crew in charge of Chief Gunner's Mate Heller of Menominee, Mich.

Story of Fight
Telling of the struggle after the submarine had started to maneuver astern, Heller's report said, in part: "The after gun appeared to have more velocity than the forward gun and the shells passed over the ship and struck near the starboard bow. A fierce firing was kept up from that angle until the submarine got astern. Apparently picking her own position, she remained slightly on the vessel's port stem and fired from that position, the forward gun's shells still dropping short.

The submarine then drew closer, using both guns at tandem fire, the shells falling on both sides of the ship. Shrapnel was now being used and some of the shells burst before contact, scattering about the deck. One of the shells burst against the side of the port beam.

"Shells fell in all directions on both sides and over the length of the ship. A shell burst close to the ship's stern. Fragments of it became embedded in the wooden deck at the rear of the gun's crew. Another shell burst alongside of the starboard bow. The tremendous concussion threw all the men on the platform to the deck face forward.

"Both of the Panabara's guns now had the range of the submarine and a rapid fire was kept up. The submarine had apparently dropped back and ship's shells either fell on top of the submarine or close to her bow. The submarine then ceased firing, swung broadside to and submerged or sank. How first, with the stern up at an angle of about 15 degrees. It disappeared in about 20 seconds. It is believed the submarine was damaged and in distress.

The Vacuum Oil Company praised the gun crew, and the master of the vessel, Frank W. Chapman, added his praise for them, for Heller and for Conrad Johansson, who was at the wheel.

VERDUN HERO TELLS OF WAR

H. W. Kenney, who has lately returned from France where he was engaged in driving an ambulance, spoke before the enlisted men in the Y. M. C. A. hall at Fort Constitution and Stark, Newswatch, Wednesday evening.

Mr. Kenney was decorated by the French government for unusual daring in the battle of Verdun and was awarded the Croix de Guerre. He gave an excellent lecture and exhibited 100 official French war pictures, gas masks and other implements of modern warfare. He was listened to by large and appreciative audiences, including officers of the forts.

Auto drivers making the trip over the road from Boston, say that the roads with the exception of a few short stretches at Seabrook and Hampton Falls are in fine shape.

WEAK KIDNEYS MEAN A WEAK BODY

When you're fifty, your body begins to break a little at the hinges. Motion is more slow and deliberate. "Not so young as I used to be," is a frequent and unwise thought. Certain bodily functions upon which good health and good spirits so much depend, are impaired. The weak spot is generally the bladder. Unpleasant symptoms show themselves. Painful and annoying complications in other organs arise. This is particularly true with elderly people. If you only know how, this trouble can be obviated.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil has been relieving the inconvenience and pain due to advancing years. It is a standard, old-time home remedy, and needs no introduction. It is now put up in odorless, tasteless capsules. These are easier and more pleasant to take than the oil in bottles. Each capsule contains about one dose or five drops. Take them just like you would any pill, with a small swallow of water. They soak into the system and throw off the poisons which are making you old before your time. They will quickly relieve those stiffened joints, that backache, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gall-stones, gravel, "brick-dust," etc. They are an effective remedy for all diseases of the bladder, kidney, liver, stomach and allied organs.

Go to your druggist today and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three, sixes, GOLD MEDAL are the pure, original import—Haarem Oil Capsules. Accept no substitutes.

SPORT NOTES OF INTEREST

Clint Kingsbury and Jack Renner will go to Rochester tonight and roll the first ten strings of a 20-string match against Pat Kiley and Harry Young of that town. The second ten strings will be rolled at the Arcade alleys in this city some night next week. The match is for $20 a side.

Young Kenney of the South Dakota and a boxer, from the Hamill will appear in one of the preliminaries at the coming show to be presented by the Hockingham A. C. Kenney has a good record in the service and has put up some great bouts against Pink Croppie of the Frederick.

Barney McLaughlin, once of Penacook, N. H., later of the New England League, will manage one of the teams in the Manchester City League this summer.

Charlie Meira, who will wrestle Bill Dryden in this city in the near future, is one of the best developed wrestlers in the country. When he appeared in Manchester some weeks ago, he gave a demonstration of physical culture after the wrestling bout, which made a hit with the crowd.

The Manchester Mirror, recalling the beginning of baseball in New Hampshire prints the score of a tie game, 25 to 25, between the Pickwick of Manchester and the Kearseville club of Concord in the latter city, August 18, 1898.

On his recent visit to Portsmouth, Jim Poulos had a few words to say about the "middleweight" wrestling. He Poulos says that Klonas, Yokel, Gardner and the rest of the bunch can do all the claiming they want to, but he asserts that one Pat Brown of Texas is the real and only undefeated middleweight champion of the world. Jim admits he has been defeated by Brown while in Texas, and says that Brown trimmed Klonas, Yokel, and Joe Turner without much exertion. Poulos says that Brown is the idol of the Southwest, and the man who can trim him, could easily clean up $25,000.

Carter of Portland and Russell of Lewiston were only one pin in the rear when they finished the first lap of a four cornered match with McConville of Westbrook and Pride of Portland at Lewiston, Me., Tuesday night. The second stage will be rolled at Portland next week. A 400 purse hinges on the result. Carter held the single string honors with 132 and 127, and with Russell the team single honors of 244 and 241. Peter Fridt kept up his reputation by landing the best ten string total, 1040. The Lewiston-Portland pair got away to a 36-pin lead in two strings, but McConville and Pride reduced it to 13 at the end of the fourth, and in the fifth they went into the lead by 15. The final score was McConville and Pride, 2041; Carter and Russell, 2010.

The Illinois A. C. of Chicago has set April 4 and 5 for the National A. A. U. water polo championships. It will supervise in the home pool. On the first day will be run off the 400-yard relay race and the elimination games of the soccer water polo tournament, on the second the fancy diving contest for men, the 100-yard free, style matches.

TRACK AND ROAD

The result of the New York and Chicago sales cannot help but demonstrate that the day of the high-priced race horse is again with us, remarks the Horse Review. Also that a good race horse can readily earn money owing to the scarcity of his rivals and the disposition on the part of the more important racing associations to consider racing as an attraction they cannot do without.

In other years it has often been necessary to declare off early racing.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

Which is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by a Portsmouth Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is. Endorsed by strangers from faraway places. It's different when the endorsement comes from home.

Easy to prove local testimony. Read this Portsmouth case: Stephen H. Goodwin, baker, 21 New Castle Ave., says: "When lifting a barrel of flour, I strained and wrenched my kidneys. engagements for the reason that the horses were not ready. Inasmuch as the government needs the fairs, and the fairs cannot dispense with the racing it is incumbent upon wagon drivers and drivers to get the horses ready and a patriotic one to start them, whether they are ready or not. Harness racing waits no slackers this year, of all others, and if there are any there is abundant evidence that they will not be found among the men who operate the tracks.

The Vermont State Fair will be held at White River Junction, Sept. 17-23, with a possible 1,000 early closing and $200 to $300 purse program. F. L. Davis is again secretary.

Track and fair men of New England voted last week that every member of the newly formed Breeders' and Fair's Association, giving a meeting, donate a portion of his profits to some war fund.

The Rochester fair speed program this fall will be made up of twelve $500 events.

The four-year-old filly, Little Annie S., 218 1-4, by Peter O'Donnell, is a recent arrival at the Cox stable at Dover.

ON THE DIAMOND

The annual cry in baseball camps is "what with the come-backs do this year?" At least three come-backs, not old ones these, may have a decided effect on their club standings if they should be able to come through. Bill James, who for a season was one of the most remarkable pitchers in the National League, will essay to make things jump a bit with the Braves again this season. Joe Wood is said to be rounding in shape in New Orleans. Wood's ability to pitch or his lack of it will have a decided effect on the standing of the Cleveland Indians next September. Marlinus should do much better for Pittsburgh under Wilbert Robinson's tutelage.

The National Commission has grown tired of the dilatory tactics of the International League, and unless the tottering minor league takes some prompt decisive action soon, the commission probably will step in and declare all the players of the International circuit free agents.

T. J. Hickey, president of the American Association, in a letter to club owners last Monday laid before them a proposal to start all association games during the coming season at 4 p. m.

National League managers with few exceptions seem to endorse President Tenner's hint that spitball pitchers are not desirable acquisitions, for the spitball brigade it is hinted, will be coached into developing some material. It is to be done as a matter of protection, since it has been made plain that barring the spitball is only a matter of a short time.

From all indications, says the Buffalo Times, all ball players must be wealthy. Every time some athlete refuses to sign his contract he announces his immediate retirement to his farm, his ranch, his all range or his country estate.

Joe Tinker is going to install girls as ushers, ticket sellers and takers and to sell pop and peanuts this year at Columbus.

Manager Griffith of Washington has sent the Cuban outfielder Acosta, recently returned by the Baltimore International League club, to the Atlanta club of the Southern league.

The transfer of Jimmy Smith to Boston by the Giants indicates that McGraw is satisfied that Larry Doyle can come back.

WITH THE BOXERS

Young Labore, bantamweight boxer, who makes Manchester his home, will soon have an opportunity to make a drive for the championship at 110 pounds. Labore will meet either Barney Snider of Boston, Paul Deemmers of New Bedford or Paddy Owens of Boston, all of whom have cut a wide swath in the boxing game at their weight. The bout will be pulled off in Boston.

Dustin Farnum, the movie star, is one of the best boxing fans in the country. He never misses a chance to be at the ringside and boost a good boxer along. He knows the game and would make a good man to judge some of the big main events.

Fred Fulton may go into vaudeville for ten weeks before he meets Jess Willard, July 4, but he will not fight any other antagonist before that time. He might not be much of an attraction after that.

Al Shubert evidently doesn't care much about the coin when he turns down offers to meet Artie Root, Joe Lynch and Dick Landman right in a row. Philadelphia wanted to see the first two proposed bouts and Cleveland the latter. However, he has a big bout with Kid Williams on Patriot's Day at New Bedford to look forward to and also arguments with Tommy Shea at Southbridge April 11 and with Gusio Lewis at Philadelphia April 15.

Watch out for big news. Follow the people's paper—the Herald.

MRS. COWLES WINS CUSTODY OF CHILDREN

allowed to see them and have them visit him one week at Christmas, and a month during the summer, after he has accepted the terms of the decree.

To insure the carrying out of this condition, he appointed Mrs. Wellington Wells, of 171 Bay State road, Boston, legal custodian of the children, and directed that Dr. Cowles should pay her $50 a month for their support.

This evidence, the court declared, did not sustain charges of criminal misconduct which each parent made against the other.

The father, now living in New York, did not show that he had been a suitable home for the children, the decree states. "While the father is not an immoral man, he has mental qualities of being unfair, unreasonable, self-willed and defiant of truth and law, which would have an injurious effect on the children if they were given to his charge."

The decree, in brief, finds that the children should be with the mother, and in part says: "It is therefore found that the children's home and general care should be with the mother. The natural rights of the children to have such resources as can be obtained from the father under this situation should be conserved. The complete unity between parents makes it doubtful if the mother could act in proper spirit in having the children visit, and in letting them be visited by the father on suitable occasions as hereinafter provided. It is therefore found that a third person should be appointed as the legal custodian of the children, and Elizabeth Brewer Wells of Boston (Mrs. Wellington Wells, 171 Bay State road, Boston) is hereby appointed.

Such custodian shall with suitable frequency visit the children and keep informed as to their well being, home life, influence, and surroundings, reporting to the court anything affecting their welfare adversely.

The court in a signed statement accepting the terms of this decree, and agreeing to be governed by it, the children shall be permitted to live with him on such visits as he may make at such place or places in or near Boston, and on such days as the custodian may consider proper, the children on all occasions to be returned to the mother by midnight, and may not exceed one week during the Christmas season with him, the limit of such visits to be determined by the custodian, and may spend one of the months of July or August, as determined by the custodian, with him or his family at Cowlesville, or some other suitable vacation resort, as approved by the custodian. "Neither parent shall permit anything to be said or done against the other or the other's family in the children's presence."

"The father, commencing April 1, 1918, shall pay to the custodian $50 monthly, to be used by the custodian towards the children's support, and maintenance. He shall also pay all other expenses while they are with him, including for travel."

The case of Florence J. Cowles of Brookline, vs. Dr. Edward S. Cowles is a long standing one on the docket of the superior court. A divorce was granted Mrs. Cowles on the ground of treatment injuring health at the April term in 1916.

The status of the children then was that they should visit six months with each parent, alternating. While with the mother they should be in Massachuchusetts, and while with the father in New Hampshire.

In January, 1917, the father filed a petition to have the order modified so they could be in New York or New Jersey while with the father, as his business took him there frequently. The petition was denied.

On January 16, 1917, he took them to New York, and then to Virginia, and later the circuit court of Virginia appointed Harriett V. Cowles, mother of Dr. Cowles, guardian, and their custody was committed to her.

In subsequent proceedings the appointment was revoked, and the guardian ordered to surrender the children to their mother. A cross petition was later filed by the mother on May 16, 1917, and by the father July 12, 1917. The mother asked that the father be held in contempt for taking the children to Virginia. The father claimed that the children's health would be better at his mother's place called Cowlesville, Va., than in their present home in Brookline, as there was constant danger in Brookline. The claim, however, was not sustained.

This phase of the case was begun in Portsmouth in August, 1916, and ended in private hearings before Judge Allen at the January term of Court.

SENATE CONTINUES CRITICISM

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 27.—Resumption of the criticism of the Administration in the conduct of the war today drew from Senator Williams, democrat, of Mississippi, the suggestion that the republicans were playing politics with the idea of helping Leinroth in his fight for the senate at Wisconsin. Leinroth, he maintained, was lukewarm in the matter of the war. Senator Smoot of Utah defended Representative Leinroth with the statement that he had voted with the democrats in every war measure of any merit.

GERMAN WOUNDED FILL LONG TRAINS

(By Associated Press)

Amsterdam, March 27.—Especially long ambulance trains are passing through Liege to Namur and Aix-la-Chapelle, filled with wounded German soldiers. An Amsterdam paper gets from its correspondent at the front that the hospitals in northern France are not big enough to hold the wounded who must be transferred back to the larger hospitals.

REST PLACES FOR U. S. TROOPS

(By Associated Press)

Chambery, France, March 27.—American soldiers on leave now are being sent to the department of Savoie, one of the most picturesque regions of France, to obtain rest and healthful recreation after their arduous work in the trenches and behind the lines. The department was selected by officers of the American army.

It is beautifully situated about 350 miles from Paris in the Alps in southwestern France, having a mild and agreeable climate, fertile valleys, high and well-timbered mountains and pretty mountain streams and lakes.

the department to which the first American soldiers are being sent.

The first contingent of soldiers was sent to Aix-les-Bains, known to tourists the world over as "The Pearl of Savoie." This town with a normal population of less than 10,000 inhabitants is located but one mile from the lake of Bourget on a small plain surrounded by mountains.

Aix owes its fame and importance to its warm mineral springs, known to the Romans. The baths are operated under government supervision. The water is supplied by two springs, yielding daily over a million gallons. The treatment, prescribed chiefly for rheumatism and skin diseases, is supplied to American soldiers at a very nominal cost.

Chambery is a town of 22,000 inhabitants about nine miles from Aix-les-Bains. It is the capital of the Department of Savoie and an important center of learning and industry. The Grand Dukes of Savoie made their headquarters in Chambery and built there a great old castle, parts of which still stand. Old Roman ruins are also found in the neighborhood.

Challes-les-Eaux is another well-known hot springs station located a couple of miles southeast of Chambery and at the foot of the Bauges mountains. The baths there are said to have virtually the same mineral properties as those at Aix-les-Bains. A large casino and a theatre have been leased in Challes by the Young Men's Christian Association for the benefit of the American soldiers.

RUSSIANS TURNING ON THE GERMANS

Moscow, March 27.—The recapture of Odessa by the Soviet and Ukrainian troops after a sanguinary battle, is reported by the semi-official news agency. Official reports also say that Nikolayev, Kherson and Znamenka, all southern Ukrainian cities, have been captured from the Austrians by Red Guards and armed civilians. (The recapture of Kherson and Nikolayev was reported in press despatches yesterday from Petrograd.) The population of Kherson organized and expelled the invaders. A heavy artillery bombardment is reported in connection with the recapture of Nikolayev.

Demands not set forth by the Germans in the peace treaty with Ukraine are creating disorder there. The latest of these demands is that Ukraine surrender 85 per cent of its grain and all the sugar from its 114 refineries except that needed for local consumption. The Ukrainian Rada has protested that this is not in the terms of the peace treaty.

The German commander at Kiev requested the bankers there to float a loan of 10,000,000 rubles on security provided by German financial institutions. The bankers declined to do so. German troops are constantly moving eastward through Kiev. Breadstuffs are being exported from Kiev in large quantities, and consequently there is an acute shortage. The municipal officials clashed with the Rada authorities over the food situation, and the mayor resigned. Peasants at Novol, fifty-four miles north of Vitebsk, organized to resist the German food requisitions. They are reported to have killed eighty German soldiers.

Paris, March 27.—The statement that Leon Troitzky has approached the Entente with a new proposal, manifesting a desire to organize military resistance to the Germans, with the eventual support of French military aid, appears today in the Petit Parisien.

"There can be no better way of defining the attitude of the Entente in this matter," the newspaper says, "than by saying again that the Allies have been and continue to be willing to support all elements in Russia which desire to oppose the German invasion. Such, we believe, are the intentions of France, as formulated by the Government."

The present official status of M.

Troitzky has not been made clear. He resigned as Foreign Minister early this month. After the removal of the Government to Moscow he was said to be in control of the situation at Petrograd, as head of the Military Revolutionary Committee.

LONDON OBJECTIVE OF NEW GERMAN GUN

London, March 27.—Lieutenant General von Ithage, a German authority on ordnance, says in the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin that the bombardment of Paris is merely the harbinger of a trial for guns which are really intended to bombard London, says an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Copenhagen. He adds: "It is a waste of time for citizens of Paris to ascend the Eiffel Tower in an effort to catch a glimpse of the cannon. Only airplanes at a height of 1500 yards will be able to observe them."

London is about 125 miles from the nearest point on the front.

After 9 Years Of Internal Baths

Mr. Addison Williams writes Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York as follows: "Regarding the J. B. J. Cascade, I feel it is one of the indispensable articles and should be in every home. I have not taken 100 worth of medicine since obtaining it—about 3 years ago. You can be free of biliousness and constipation, with all the ills which they produce, by an occasional internal bath. The J. B. J. Cascade, administered these scientifically, is being an invention of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., of New York, and is the only one of its kind. By the proper application of Nature's cure—warm water—it keeps the lower intestine free of all poisonous waste, and permits every function to work in harmony and without clogging—hence makes one consistently bright, enjoyable and well."

BENJAMIN GREEN, Druggist, will be glad to show and explain the "J. B. J. Cascade" to you, and will also give you free on request an interesting and authoritative book, "Living Mail of To-Day is Only 50 Per Cent Efficient," written by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell.

Ask for it today while it is fresh in your mind.

WATER SYSTEM*Expert Engineer Inspecting Plant With That End in View.

To meet the increasing water supply in this city, the water system of the Frank Jones, Brewing Company may be taken over by the public works department. Today officials of the department, accompanied by out of town engineers, visited the Jones plant at Newington and made an inspection of the equipment. The plant consists of pumping station, boilers, pumps, stand-pipe and pipe lines to this city.

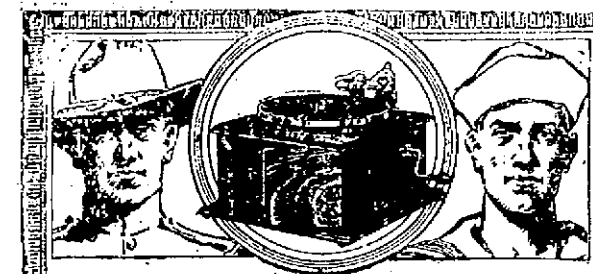

The plant formerly furnished a supply to the Gale Shoe Company, Morley Jutton Company, besides that consumed at the brewery. The Portsmouth Country Club are also on the line. Should the plant be purchased by the city it would require but a little work to connect the lines with those of the city, which could be done on Islington street or elsewhere.

The growth of business, increased population and the big supply consumed by the army at New Castle, has

AT THE HOME
OF HIS SISTER*Suicide of Fred E. Lowd at Hampton; Was Former Resident of Portland.

Following a recent illness causing nervous troubles, Fred E. Lowd of Hampton ended his life some time during the night and his act was not discovered until this morning at 6.30. The suicide occurred at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Marston, on the Exeter road, with whom he had been making his home.

Labored under the mental strain he discharged a revolver in his mouth and was dead almost instantly. The inmates of the house did not hear any report of the shooting and knew nothing of the sad affair until his lifeless body was discovered this morning in his room.

Mr. Lowd was nearly 53 years of age and formerly resided in Portland, Me., where he was employed many years by the Portland Co-operative Company. He was a man highly respected and the sad ending of his life will cause much sorrow among those who knew him. He leaves a brother and sister in Portland.

NOTES FROM THE NEWINGTON

James O. Heyworth of the U. S. Shipping Board, Washington, Chief of the Wood Ship Construction, and District Manager John E. Vaughan of Boston, were at the yard today and made a thorough inspection of the works. The chief found everything moving along with much force.

The visitors were met by President Shattuck and others.

Board of Trade was here today, and at Newington where he held a conference with the officials of the ship building plant. It is understood that his visit was in connection with the housing of several workmen who are to take up work at the plant on Monday next. It is said that an effort will be made to have as many men as possible accommodated in the surrounding towns, especially at Hampton, North Hampton and Greenland.

The Board of Trade of Amesbury is showing the right kind of spirit in this work to win the war and doing everything possible to help the shipbuilders as well as the men from that town who have enrolled for government work.
